

eChat Management Console

The eChat Management Console is a hierarchical and domain-based management platform based on eChat Push-to-Talk over Cellular service, adapting to flexible management modes such as unified operation or hierarchical operation. The platform supports full management of agents/fleets/accounts/groups at all levels through web service. All account licenses and policies are managed through the management platform in a centralized manner, which may facilitate deployment and management.

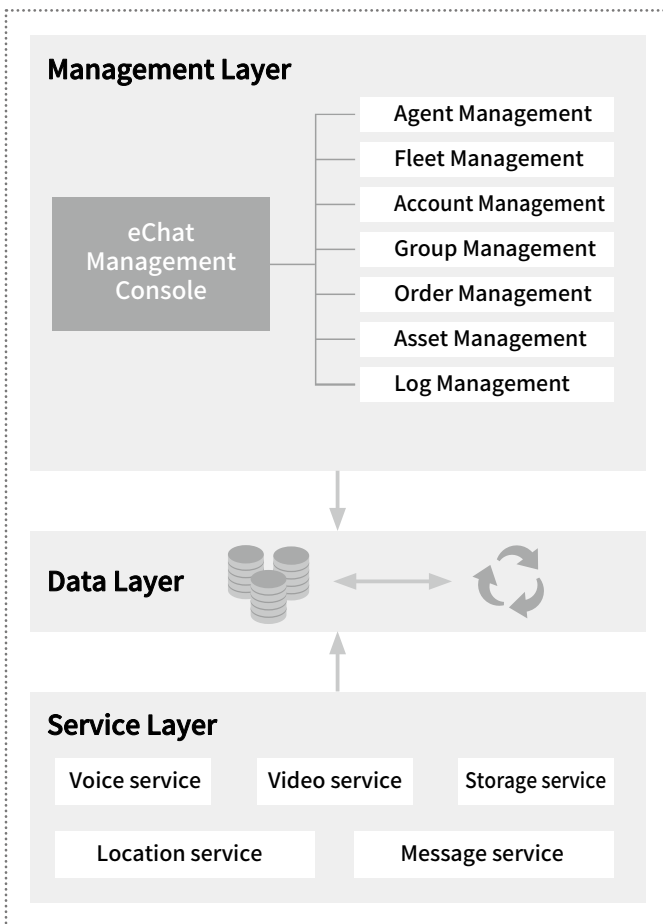

Features

Hierarchical Management	The platform structure supports and distinguishes multi-level management modes to meet the management requirements of users at different levels.
Convenient Operation	The system supports batch operations and one-click operations of various service information, providing high operability and maintainability.
Domain-based Management	In login management, different rights and domains are allocated to different login accounts to ensure security.

Customization	The platform supports the customization of open interfaces to implement fast customization of industrial user requirements.
Open Platform	Open Platform With an open architecture, the platform has high expandability and portability.

Functions

Agent Management	Operation and management functions of agent/sub-agent at all levels, including agent/sub-agent adding, agent/sub-agent deleting, agent/sub-agent modifying, agent/sub-agent query and agent account segment management, etc.
Fleet Management	It can add, delete, modify and query fleet information, and also organizations management of the fleet.
Account Management	It can plan and add accounts, query and modify account information, account property settings, and default dispatcher settings.
Group Management	It can add, delete, query and modify group information, add/delete group members, and set group properties.
Order Management	It can create orders, accept orders, reject orders, and manage different subscription licenses.
Asset Management	It can manage different subscription licenses and active/renew accounts according to your requirements.
Log Management	The management console support recording the operation logs for easy system maintenance.
Security Management	The management console supports HTTPS secure access. The agent/sub-agent supports binding accounts with IMEI or ICCID. The management console supports strong password policies and CAPTCHA verification.
Other Management	The management console support batch operation and data import and export. Support role management and other customized information management. Support remote provision, account remote enable/disable, account fallback, terminal information report, etc.